UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

In re:) Chapter 11
CELSIUS NETWORK LLC, et al.,¹) Case No. 22-10964 (MG)
Debtors.) (Jointly Administered.)

JOINDER OF THREE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-FIVE CELSIUS EARN CREDITORS
TO THE BORROWERS' LIMITED OBJECTION TO THE DEBTORS' MOTION FOR ENTRY OF AN ORDER EXTENDING THE DEBTORS' EXCLUSIVE PERIOD TO FILE
A CHAPTER 11 PLAN [D.R. 1475]

We, the undersigned 375 Celsius Earn creditors,² would like to make it known that we agree with the above-mentioned filing, D.R. 1475, filed on behalf of the Borrowers.

This filing is consistent with our views and opinions on the issue of exclusivity. We strongly object to the Debtors' requested extension of exclusivity until March 31, 2023 to solicit votes on a plan until May 31, 2023. The amount of time is outrageous and a non-starter.

¹ The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, along with the last four digits of each Debtor's federal tax identification number, are: Celsius Network LLC (2148); Celsius KeyFi LLC (4414); Celsius Lending LLC (8417); Celsius Mining LLC (1387); Celsius Network Inc. (1219); Celsius Network Limited (8554); Celsius Networks Lending LLC (3390); and Celsius US Holding LLC (7956). The location of Debtor Celsius Network LLC's principal place of business and the Debtors' service address in these chapter 11 cases is 121 River Street, PH05, Hoboken, New Jersey 07030.

² Signatures and personal comments from the Earn creditors follow on pages 4-41.

We can, however, support a limited 60-day extension for the Debtor. Sixty days should be more than sufficient time to determine whether a sale of the Debtors' assets will actually occur. Additionally, this should provide sufficient time for the examiner to complete her report and for the Court to rule on certain threshold issues such as ownership of assets.

We therefore ask that the Court enter an order limiting the extension of exclusivity to, at the most, an additional 60 days—and the deadline to solicit votes to an additional 60 days thereafter.

We ask that the Debtor, including the Special Committee, and Chris Ferraro, along with the UCC, dramatically increase communication with creditors. Representatives from Earn, Loans, Custody and Withhold are talking constantly. Earn and Loans have already hashed out potential deals that creditors would agree to. Yet, none of the estate fiduciaries are involved in these discussions.

We agree with Mr. Adler and the Borrowers that the Debtors should be focused on creating a sale process where the prospective bidders can interact with creditor constituencies to assist the bidders in evaluating the assets and maximize the bidding for the benefit of the estate.

In conclusion, we agree to a significantly limited exclusivity extension, provided that all fiduciary parties openly and regularly communicate with Borrowers, Earn Customers, and other community representatives.

The individuals whose signatures appear below each state as follows: "I declare under penalty of perjury, pursuant to 28 U.S.C § 1746, that I am a Celsius Earn customer, that I am signing this joinder on behalf of myself, and that the information I have provided herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information and belief."

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: December 2, 2022

INDIVIDUAL COMMENTS FROM CELSIUS EARN CREDITORS

The Debtors have had more than enough time to present a plan if they intended too. I have no faith that they are doing anything more than wasting what is left of my assets. There is no justifiable reason to delay real plans from others to be presented. I have no faith in the current Celsius Management to do anything meaningful for retail investors like myself that in my personal view they have scammed.

Peter Stewart, Sydney, Australia

I wish this process would not take any longer and the exclusivity only makes the process longer because nobody is expecting a re-org from Celsius itself anymore. We need other people (maybe Simon Dixons plan) to make anything work. But extending the period of exclusivity, is not helpful in my opinion.

Bas de Bok, Berkel-Enschot, The Netherlands

Please make a speedy ruling so we can move on from this
Jesse Zak, Ontario, Canada

The Debtor is exploiting bankruptcy law at the expense of creditor asset recovery. They have had plenty of time to submit a plan, as evidenced by how quickly BlockFi submitted one in their bankruptcy. The Debtor is hoping to pull the wool over this Court's eyes in anticipation that market conditions turn favorable in order to return assets valued at a very old point in time at little cost to them. This is too risky and irresponsible, costing many people their livelihood and some, their lives. Please deny the requested extension of exclusivity.

Alberto Jimenez, Springfield, VA

The money in my Celsius account is my personal life savings. I just want it back :(Peter Gray, Newark, California

I would like my coins back. Celsius had enough exclusivity period. We should not pay for their legal fees, salaries for such an extended period of time.

Deniz Levenberg, Austin TX

Celsius has wasted too much $$$ already in the past 5 months without any reorganisation plan. They burned more than $10 million per month. Compared to BlockFi who has a reorg plan within 1 week after filing bankruptcy. Celsius just transferred creditors hard-earned $$ to their lawyers and staff pockets each day on a rapid scale. Time to stop that, not extend exclusivity. Hope the judge is alert to their plot. Viola Siu Ping Lo, Harris Park, NSW, Australia

Please. We (creditors) believed it was a savings account when we deposited our funds to Celsius. It has been months since this started. Celsius shows no progress on trying to reorg.

Trong Phan, Raleigh

Your Honor, our assets have been taken from us and being held hostage against our will. It shouldn't take this long to figure out that the Celsius reorganization plan failed. These are OUR assets and not the property of Celsius.

An extension of 141 more days is just unnecessary. At this point it's just criminal and people need access to their funds more than ever especially with prices of everyday goods and services getting worse and worse. Do the right thing, be on the right side of history. Thank you for your time.

Martin Robert, Henderson, Nevada

Please end this nightmare for us and just return our assets.

Aryeh Newman, Huntington Beach, CA

Celsius' assets are their software or mining Hardware. Our deposits should not be treated as their earned assets.

Bal Krishna Jha, Lorton, Virginia

I am shocked we even have to submit this petition, they've had nearly six months and have shown absolutely nothing to this point. I have zero faith they are doing anything beyond dragging the process out thus forcing hands.

Christopher Paul Birnbaum, Saint Petersburg, Florida

I do not believe my Stablecoins are owned by Celsius. They are custodians providing a service and interest payments.

John David Porter, Indianapolis, Indiana

I have absolutely no belief that the debtors have any intention of filing a good faith reorg plan, while they burn through what assets are left. They need to be compelled into a sale of the company. They have proven that they cannot be trusted.

Jonathan Malcolm Boyd Johor Bahru, Malaysia

Celsius and Mashinsky don't have the necessary licenses to operate and after what happened no regulator will issue licenses. Please Your Honor Judge Martin Glenn have mercy on us. We've been through so much already.

Robertino Stoicescu, Sydney Australia

I join in requesting limited exclusivity for the Debtor.

Curt Dell, United States

I desperately need my life's savings back, it's intolerable watching this company fritter away everything I've worked for and saved over all these years. This is my livelihood.

Jason Deon Mayhew, Salt Lake

My family's future has been erased. We made serious life choices based on our investments and now they are all destroyed.

Christopher Harvey, Queensland, Australia

Alex and Daniel should be in jail.

Jared R Hamilton, Malvern

Objection to extend the exclusivity as Celsius Network is still unable to provide re-org plans after the 120 days exclusivity already extended to them & keep burning away our assets to the lawyers, etc.

Tan Chye Teck, Singapore

I put my life savings in Celsius and am living in my car as a result of this bankruptcy. I am asking you PLEASE get this case moving so people like me can get the money back we desperately need.

Justin Nicholson, Green Cove Springs, FL

We want our assets back!

Gianni Vanni Waterville, Ohio

I believe this should not be extended at all, they had more than enough time and money to come up with a plan. They have repeatedly shown their utmost incompetence. Please end this!

Yvan Clot-Goudard, France

Your honor - We're just a group of normal people - families, kids, seniors who were trying to make an honest buck through a seemingly legitimate, seemingly well managed and seemingly transparent fund management system. If this group of people can't expect a fair trial from the American justice system, there is nowhere to go in this whole world for us. I truly hope that respected judges take into consideration the individual lives that'll be affected and not minor fluctuations in the net worth of the thieves who ran Celsius and who played with people's lives by treating valuable assets and life's savings as gambling artifacts.

Vaibhav Pawar, Arlington Heights, Illinois

God bless you, Judge.

Juan Camilo Castillo, Giron, Australia

It has been 6 months, Celsius has not provided anything even close to a plan. They haven't done any effort in finding a solution even temporarily to those suffering the most, those that had their life savings stolen from them. An ex employee Zach Wildes that was the person closest to Alex Mashinsky in the company, keeps tweeting that he has the ear, and is communicating with celsius management for the reorg. This just goes to show how alex Mashinsky is still manipulating Chris Ferrarro the CFO as well as the Celsius entity, for his own gains against what is best for the creditors. Creditors deserve a quick solution. BlockFi, Voyager, all other companies have already come out with a plan when celsius has none. It is clearly bad faith that has only one goal: to string along creditors and make them desperate to accept any deal with a release for the criminals who stole our life savings. All insiders emptied their accounts before the freeze, when we cannot even make rent, nor afford food for our children. This situation needs to end, and creditors must be given the chance to get out of ch11 ASAP. Thank you for listening.

Philippe Hegi, Hong Kong

The request for extension of exclusivity for another 142 days is ridiculous. Celsius management has had plenty of time to come up with a Celsius restructuring plan.

Eric Chan, La Habra, California

Please get my life savings back!

Jorge Chavarria, Toronto, Ontario, Canada

The fact that this has dragged on for over 4 months with no progress should be reason enough to prevent an extension.

Doug Leung Lafayette, Indiana

Please stop this Criminal Celsius Cartel ASAP. They have stolen enough of my family's hard-earned savings.

Frances Jones, Sydney, Australia

Please give me my coins back asap. I am 20 years old!

Liam Nguyen-Jones, Sydney, Australia

Please also rule that borrowers can pay back their loans and have collateral released from Celsius.

Johan Bronge, Dubai, United Arab Emirates

I am a military officer and single dad. This has crippled me by about 3 years. Please do the right thing. Return the ownership of the coins to the people - not the corporations.

Bernard Mutz, Dayton, Ohio

It is our right to take back what we own.

Andrea Marchiotto, Rotterdam, The Netherlands

We waited long enough for them. All they do is take our money.

Mahmanzar Moezzi Torrevieja, Alicante, Spain

"Celsius have had plenty of time to come up with a Reorg plan all the while burning our funds. No more time should be given.

Philip Charles Harding, Cardiff United Kingdom

Limited Exclusivity is essential given the infamous mishandlings of CELSIUS that led us to this Bankruptcy.

RAVI V. ALAPATI, ATLANTA, GA

After all frauds committed, having exclusivity is perpetuating them.
Sheila Ferreira, Viana do Castelo, Portugal

Please respect the voice of consensus of the actual creditors, particularly those with small but significant holdings.
Joel Kaiser, Cully, Switzerland

They messed around long enough and are not really doing anything for creditors or to come up with a reorganization plan. It's becoming clear that the only thing they are fighting for is to minimize the damage to Mashinsky and co. They are using our funds to pay for all this nonsense, while they pulled their own funds out of the company, while telling everyone everything is fine. Clear fraudsters.

Rien Vanmarcke, Brugge, Belgium

The amount of money being spent on attorneys and directors' salaries is obscene. There are plans to move forward but it's in the attorneys best interest to drag this out. Please do what is best for the victims of this fraud.

Richard Kris Robison, Provo, Utah

Extremely important case. Will set a precedent for future of digital assets and evolution. Protect the customers and creditors that have been mislead.

Kim Nilsson Davidsson, Puerto Aventuras, Quintana Roo, Mexico

Thank you for swift justice!
Mark Griffin, Dripping Springs, Texas

Celsius and Machinsky are just playing the "time card" (again), to grind what's left for their own sake while we struggle on a daily basis. Giving them more and more time for an hypothetical solution or plan, is just playing their game as they they never cared nor tried, to help/save their customer (=milking cow)
Philippe REYMOND, Gland, Switzerland

Why would Celsius Network need another 140 or more days of exclusivity in order to submit a recovery plan to the court? The company filed for Bankruptcy in July of 2022. March 2022 would be roughly 8 months of chapter 11 bankruptcy. I don't understand why a plan hasn't already been submitted.

Stanley Marlow, Anaheim, California

The debtors have been given ample time to develop a plan. I can agree to a small extension but anything longer than 60 days is an unnecessary drain on the estate.
Ryan Schleiger, Ryan Schleiger, Newport Beach, CA

I am not a rich man. It took me many months to save up what I invested In the hope of making it one day. I hope the company finds a way to settle things amicably by returning what is owed to me and the rest of the people who have lost their livelihood through crypto. Thank you.

Ian Perera, Subang Jaya, Selangor, Malaysia

Trust in Celsius is gone. A reorganization will fail, other parties should have access so we can have more options.

Jordan J Oglesby, Los Angeles, California

Creditors and Borrowers first. Happy Holidays.

Mark Souvigny, Phoenixville, Pennsylvania

I was parking my USDC coins on the Celsius platform. My USDC coins are my property and should be released back to me. USDC should be treated as a cash account. No one should have the right to my cash account.

igor bekker, BROOKLYN, new york

I opted for the Celsius platform for two reasons. First, they led me to believe my coins were in fact my coins and second I could earn interest to cover my son's college education.

Christopher D Fay, Plano, Texas

Funds for son's college.

Carla Gravenkemper, Plano, Texas

Simon w/ BnktotheFuture's ideas align with my thinking. Please clean house and reduce time and cost anywhere possible.
